

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH & SAFETY POLICY

At EVRAZ North America, safety is our first priority and a moral imperative. We are dedicated to continually improving safety and driving our culture toward an overriding belief that all injuries are preventable. We are committed to not only exceeding national safety standards, but sharing the responsibility for working safely to protect ourselves and our team members. Our goal is a workplace with zero incidents.

The steadfast dedication of management and employees is key to this continuous improvement. Safety efforts include:

- Management and employee commitment and participation
- Health, safety and environmental education
- Hazard recognition
- Safe practices
- Incident management
